INFORMATION RELATING TO THE ISSUER

Overview

The legal and commercial name of the issuer is CGI Inc. CGI is domiciled in Montréal, Québec, Canada, with a business address and registered offices located at 1350 René-Lévesque Blvd West 25th Floor, Montréal, Québec H3G 1T4 Canada and is incorporated in Canada as a corporation under the Companies Act (Québec), the predecessor to the Business Corporations Act (Québec) which now governs the Company.

Additional Information: CGI's Public Filings

The Company is required to publish and file documents and information with the Canadian Securities Administrators (the CSA) and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). The price of CGI's Class A shares, along with CGI's filings with the CSA and SEC are available through the Company's website at www.cgi.com. The Company's public filings are also available through the SEC's website on EDGAR at www.sec.gov and through the CSA's website on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.

Save as expressly provided in this information document, neither the content of the Company's website, the SEC's website or the CSA's website (or any other website) nor the content of any website accessible from hyperlinks on the Company's website, the SEC's website or the CSA's website (or any other website) is incorporated into, or forms part of, this information document and employees should not rely on it.

REASONS FOR THE OFFER

The purpose of the Share Purchase Plan is to encourage employee share ownership by offering eligible employees of the Group the ability to purchase Class A Shares via salary deductions matched by Company contributions. CGI believes that the Share Purchase Plan offers a convenient means for its employees who might not otherwise own Class A Shares to purchase and hold Class A Shares and that the matching Company contribution feature of the Share Purchase Plan offers a meaningful incentive for eligible employees to participate. CGI also believes that the continuing economic interests of participating employees, as shareholders, in CGI's performance will provide additional incentives for such employees to contribute to the Group's potential for growth and profitability.

When deciding whether to participate in the Share Purchase Plan, the participating employee should be aware that the purchase of Class A Shares in no way guarantees any profits or excludes any losses. The participating employee should be aware that selling a Share may incur losses.

The number of Class A Shares purchased on the open market under the Share Purchase Plan will depend on a number of factors including the level of employee participation in the Share Purchase Plan, the amount of the contributions made by participants and the Company under the Share Purchase Plan and the value of Class A Shares at the time of purchase.

Article 1.4(i) of the Prospectus Regulation ((EU) 2017/1129) provides that employee offers are exempt from the requirement to publish a prospectus in relation to an offer to the public when securities are offered, allotted or to be allotted to existing or former directors or employees by their employer or by an affiliated undertaking provided that a document is made available containing information on the number and nature of the securities and the reasons for and details of the offer or allotment. In the United Kingdom, such exemption is incorporated into (and remains part of) domestic law via Rule 1.2.3(4)(i) of the Prospectus Regulation Rules issued by the Financial Conduct Authority. In this case, given that securities are being offered by CGI to its employees of the Group, this document lays out the relevant information and therefore there is no need to provide a prospectus.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER

Addressees of the Offer

The offer(s), the subject of this information document, are not made to the general public or to any person other than eligible employees of the Group located in Belgium, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, the Slovak Republic, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom. Only such eligible employees of the Group may acquire Class A Shares pursuant to the Share Purchase Plan.

Share Purchase Plan

Overview

CGI established the Share Purchase Plan to enable eligible employees of the Group (the Participants) to purchase Class A Shares on the open market. Such Class A Shares are to be purchased by the administrator of the Share Purchase Plan (the Plan Administrator), with contributions made to the Plan Administrator by the Participants from deductions from their net pay and by the Group companies participating in the Share Purchase Plan (each a Participating Employer). The Plan Administrator shall hold the Class A Shares so purchased for the account of the Participants.

Eligibility and Participation

Any full or part-time employee of a Participating Employer of the Group in the United Kingdom or the relevant EEA member state who is actively at work at the time of enrolment is eligible to participate in the Share Purchase Plan. An employee ceases to be eligible to participate in the Share Purchase Plan on his or her last working day with a Participating Employer, excluding any period representing pay in lieu of notice or other notice or payment on account of termination of employment.

The interest of a Participant under the Share Purchase Plan may not be transferred, assigned or pledged by the Participant.

If an eligible employee wishes to become a Participant, the eligible employee should (unless directed otherwise) enrol in the Share Purchase Plan in the manner specified from time to time by the Participating Employer. The participation of the employee in the Share Purchase Plan commences on the first practicable date following enrolment.

Contributions

Class A Shares are purchased by the Plan Administrator with contributions made to the Plan Administrator by the Participants and the Participating Employers. The Plan Administrator holds the Class A Shares so purchased for the account of the Participants.

Participant Contributions

Participants are entitled to make two types of contributions: (i) a basic contribution (the Participant Basic Contribution); and (ii) additional contributions in excess of the Participant Basic Contribution.

The Participant Basic Contribution is an amount equal to a percentage of the Participant's annual gross base salary (or, as determined by the Participating Employer in its sole discretion, the portion of such annual gross base salary actually earned by the Participant during the relevant year) (the Participant Contribution Percentage). The Participant Basic Contribution is made through deductions at source, withheld from the Participant's net salary in each pay period. The Participant Basic Contribution is remitted from the Participating Employer, at each pay period applicable to the Participant, to the Plan Administrator.

The Participant Contribution Percentage for the purposes of calculating the Participant Basic Contribution shall be determined from time to time by either the Executive Chair of the Board of Directors of the Company or the President and Chief Executive Officer and may vary by position and by business unit as well as over time, as either the Executive Chair of the Board of Directors or the President and Chief Executive Officer may in his discretion determine, provided that such percentage shall not exceed three and one-half per cent. (3.5%).

Subject to the paragraph immediately above, a Participant who is actively at work may increase or decrease the Participant Contribution Percentage at any time in the manner specified from time to time by the Participating Employer. Such modification comes into effect as soon as practicable following the date on which it was made.

Upon an annual gross base salary review, the Participant Basic Contribution is automatically modified based on the Participant's revised annual gross base salary. Such modification comes into effect as soon as practicable following the date of such computation. However, this modification does not apply on the sums paid retroactively.

A Participant may also make additional contributions to the Share Purchase Plan in excess of the Participant Basic Contribution, ranging between 0.5 per cent. and 10 per cent. of the Participant's annual gross base salary, and this, by increments of 0.5 per cent. without taking into account the rate of participation provided above, in accordance with the same terms and conditions provided above. However, the Participating Employer will not match such additional contributions made by the Participant.

Group Contributions

The Participating Employer contributes to the Share Purchase Plan for the account of each Participant an amount equal to a percentage of the Participant Basic Contribution (excluding any additional contributions made by the Participant). The percentage of the Participant Basic Contribution that the Participating Employer is required to pay is determined from time to time by either the Executive Chair of the Board of Directors of the Company or the President and Chief Executive Officer, provided that the Participating Employer's contribution cannot exceed 100 per cent. of the aggregate amount of the Participant Basic Contribution. The percentage that the Participating Employer contributes may vary by position and by business unit, as well as over time, as either the Executive Chair of the Board of Directors of the Company or the President and Chief Executive Officer may in his discretion determine.

The Participating Employer may, in addition to the contributions set out above, pay to the Plan Administrator, at its discretion, any amount as additional contribution to the Share Purchase Plan and the Plan Administrator will purchase Class A Shares on the secondary market through an exchange on which the Class A Shares are listed in accordance with the instructions of that Participating Employer. The allocation of such Class A Shares will be for the account of the Participants.

The Participating Employer pays the Plan Administrator following deductions from payroll an amount equal to that Participating Employer's contributions computed for the applicable pay period.

Purchase of Class A Shares

The Plan Administrator, following receipt of the contributions of the Participants and of the Participating Employers, purchases Class A Shares on the secondary market through an exchange on which the Class A Shares are listed, being the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) and/or the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) (as applicable). Following receipt of the contributions, the Plan Administrator executes buying orders. The Class A Shares purchased by the Plan Administrator out of the contributions made by Participants and the Participating Employers are attributed to the account of the Participants based on the applicable contributions made by the Participants and the Participating Employers and the weighted average price paid by the Plan Administrator for the Class A Shares on the applicable stock exchange and are held by the Plan Administrator for the account of the Participants.

The Company shall have the option, at its sole discretion, to provide that all cash dividends and other cash distributions received by the Plan Administrator in respect of Class A Shares held by the Plan Administrator for the account of Participants shall, subject to applicable laws of the jurisdictions in which the Plan is offered, be either (i) used by the Plan Administrator to purchase Class A Shares, and the Class A Shares so purchased shall be allocated to the Participants in proportion to their respective interests, (ii) allocated in cash to the Participants in proportion to their respective interests, or (iii) at the option of each Participant, received by such Participant either in cash or in Class A Shares purchased by the Plan Administrator. Any choice by Participants shall only be exercised in conformity with CGI's Insider Trading and Blackout Periods Policy. Currently, the Company has opted to provide that any cash dividends shall be treated as described in option (i) above.

Share dividends received by the Plan Administrator in respect of Class A Shares are held by the Plan Administrator for the account of Participants.

Information to be Provided to Participants

The Plan Administrator makes available to each Participant, through its website, an electronic report showing the number of Class A Shares held by the Plan Administrator for the account of each Participant and stating also the number of Class A Shares corresponding to the additional contributions of the Participant.

Forthwith after receipt of a notice of meeting of the holders of Class A Shares, the Plan Administrator sends or makes available via the internet to each Participant for whose benefit the Plan Administrator is holding Class A Shares a copy of any such notice of meeting and any financial statement, proxy management circular, proxy form or other material to be used in connection with the meeting.

Withdrawal from the Share Purchase Plan

A Participant may at any time withdraw, partially or in full, the Class A Shares that the Plan Administrator holds for the Participant's account by providing notice in the manner specified by the Plan Administrator from time to time. Following such withdrawal, the Plan Administrator will sell the Class A Shares held for the account of the Participant and pay to the Participant an amount in cash equal to the proceeds of such sale, less brokerage fees together with, in the case of a complete withdrawal, every other property held by the Plan Administrator pursuant to the Share Purchase Plan for the account of the Participant.

The Participant may alternatively elect to receive Class A Shares in lieu of cash payment. In such case, the Plan Administrator will deliver to the Participant a direct registration statement (Direct Registration Statement) representing such Class A Shares in the name of the Participant. However, CGI reserves the right, in lieu of the Direct Registration Statement, to remit share certificates in the name of the Participant representing the Class A Shares held by the Plan Administrator for the account of such Participant.

Termination of Participation in the Share Purchase Plan

To terminate his or her participation in the Share Purchase Plan at any time, a Participant should give notice in the manner specified from time to time by the Participating Employer to the Participating Employer and to the Plan Administrator. The Participant may decide to maintain his or her Class A Shares in the Share Purchase Plan or withdraw all or part of those Class A Shares pursuant to the procedure described above.

If a Participant's employment terminates for any reason whatsoever and the Participant does not notify the Plan Administrator and the Participating Employer of his or her choice in the manner described below (immediately after his or her last contribution has been processed), the Plan Administrator will, following receipt of a notice of termination of employment from the Participant or the Participating Employer, sell the Class A Shares held by the Plan Administrator for the account of the Participant on the secondary market through an exchange on which the Class A Shares are listed and pay to the Participant an amount in cash equal to the proceeds of such sale, less brokerage fees, together with any other property held by the Plan Administrator pursuant to the Share Purchase Plan for the account of the Participant. However, the Participant may make the election to receive a Direct Registration Statement as described above by giving a notice to the Participating Employer and to the Plan Administrator immediately after his or her last contribution has been attributed to the account of the Participant. The date of termination of employment means the Participant's last day of work for a Participating Employer, excluding any period representing pay in lieu of notice or other payment or notice on account of termination of employment.

Suspension of Participation in the Share Purchase Plan

In the event that a Participant is absent from work for any period of time and for any reason and receives no salary from the Participating Employer during such absence, the Participant's participation in the Share Purchase Plan is automatically suspended until the Participant returns to work or until the Participant elects to terminate his or her participation in the Share Purchase Plan pursuant to the procedure described above.

Fractional Entitlements

If a Participant elects to receive a Direct Registration Statement in the event of his or her withdrawal or termination of participation in the Share Purchase Plan, no fractional Class A Shares will be issued and where a fractional Class A Share should be issued, a cash payment in respect of those fractional Class A Shares is paid to the Participant.

Fees

All fees relating to the administration of the Share Purchase Plan (and all brokerage fees attached to the purchase of Class A Shares) are borne by the Participating Employer except for: (i) brokerage fees attached to the sale of Class A Shares; (ii) wire transfer fees; (iii) banking transaction fees; and (iv) currency conversion fees, which are at the charge of the Participant. The Participating Employer reserves the right to re-charge to the Participant additional administrative fees incurred for the account of the Participant. However, to the extent possible, any interest accruing on contributions is paid to the Participating Employer to be used for the payment of expenses relating to the Share Purchase Plan.

Restriction on Class A Shares and Transferability

The Class A Shares in this offering under the Share Purchase Plan are generally freely transferable (subject, however, to any blackout periods or transferability restrictions resulting from applicable insider trading laws and the Company's Insider Trading and Blackout Periods Policy).

The Share Purchase Plan is intended to provide Class A Shares for investment and not for resale. The Company does not, however, intend to restrict or influence any Participant in the conduct of his or her own affairs. A Participant, therefore, may withdraw and sell Class A Shares purchased under the Share Purchase Plan at any time he or she chooses, subject to compliance with any applicable securities laws. The Participant assumes the risk of any market or currency fluctuations in the price of the Class A Shares. Moreover the Participants' attention is drawn to the risk of investing in the Company's shares generally as described, in particular, in the "Risk Environment" section in the Company's most recent Management's Discussion and Analysis.

Administration of the Share Purchase Plan

The Company and the Plan Administrator have entered into an agreement with respect to the administration of the Share Purchase Plan (the Administration Agreement). The Administration Agreement forms part of the Share Purchase Plan and the rights of the Participants in respect of the Share Purchase Plan are subject to such agreement. In the event of differences, discrepancies or contradictions between the provisions of the Share Purchase Plan and those of the Administration Agreement, the provisions of the Share Purchase Plan shall prevail over those of the Administration Agreement. The Share Purchase Plan is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Québec, Canada.

The Plan Administrator is selected by, and may be changed by, either the Executive Chair of the Board of Directors of the Company or the President and Chief Executive Officer. The Board of Directors of the Company has full power and authority with respect to the interpretation and application of the Share Purchase Plan and to the ratification of rules, terms and other measures it may deem necessary for the management of the Share Purchase Plan.

Notwithstanding anything in the Share Purchase Plan to the contrary, and without any further act or amendment by the Company or the Board of Directors of the Company, the Executive Chair of the Board of Directors, the President and Chief Executive Officer or the Founder of CGI and Co-Chair of the Board of Directors of the Company may authorise amendments or variations to the provisions of the Share Purchase Plan, or the rules, terms or other measures relating to the management of the Share Purchase Plan, for the purpose of complying or facilitating compliance with applicable laws specific to any jurisdiction where the Share Purchase Plan is offered.

Amendment, Suspension and Termination of the Share Purchase Plan

The Board of Directors of the Company may at any time amend, suspend or terminate the Share Purchase Plan. No modification, suspension or termination of the Share Purchase Plan may affect any vested right that a Participant may have in respect of the Class A Shares subject to the Share Purchase Plan or in respect of the Share Purchase Plan until the date of amendment, suspension or termination of the Share Purchase Plan.

In the event of termination of the Share Purchase Plan, the Plan Administrator will remit as soon as possible to each Participant a Direct Registration Statement in the name of the Participant representing the Class A Shares held by the Plan Administrator for the account of such Participant together with any other property held by the Plan Administrator pursuant to the Share Purchase Plan for the account of such Participant. However, CGI reserves the right, in lieu of the Direct Registration Statement, to remit share certificates in the name of the Participant representing the Class A Shares held by the Plan Administrator for the account of such Participant.

No Right to Continued Employment or Further Rights

Participation in the Share Purchase Plan entitles the Participant to only the benefits provided for in the Share Purchase Plan and only to the extent that the assets are remitted to the Plan Administrator, and does not confer upon any Participant the right to be employed by or to remain an employee of any Group company. The Share Purchase Plan and the Participant's participation in the Share Purchase Plan do not generate any acquired rights, are subject to the rules and criteria as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company from time to time and do not constitute an express or implied term of nor in any manner form part of the Participant's employment contract with the Participating Employer.

The Board of Directors of the Company has full discretionary authority to set, adjust, modify, suspend or cancel the contributions to the Share Purchase Plan of the Participant and the Participating Employer. Nothing in the Share Purchase Plan shall create in favour of the Participants any vested, demandable or enforceable right to make and receive contributions for the purchase of Class A Shares except in respect of those due as at the date of any modification, adjustment, suspension or termination of the Share Purchase Plan.

Personal Data

By requesting to participate in the Share Purchase Plan and for the purposes of such participation, the Participants consent to: (i) the transfer of their personal data by the Company or the Participating Employer to the Plan Administrator or its affiliates in such location where the Plan Administrator or its affiliates are situated or operate; and (ii) the storage and processing of their personal data in such location.

Compliance with Tax Legislation

The Participants are fully responsible for their compliance with any applicable tax legislation. Neither the Company nor any Participating Employer can be held responsible for any failure in that respect on the part of a Participant. Participants are advised to seek appropriate professional advice as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situation.

NATURE OF SECURITIES AND RIGHTS ATTACHING TO SECURITIES

The Class A Shares are traded on the NYSE under the symbol GIB and on the TSX under the symbol GIB.A. The Class A Shares have ISIN number CA12532H1047.

The Class A Shares have no par value. The currency of the Class A Shares listed on: (i) the NYSE is US dollars; and (ii) the TSX is Canadian dollars.

Any returns that you make from holding and/or selling your Class A Shares are, both positively and negatively, subject to currency fluctuations (e.g. as between Canadian and/or US dollars and the Euro for participants residing in the Eurozone).

CGI's authorised share capital consists of:

- an unlimited number of First Preferred Shares, issuable in series;
- an unlimited number of Second Preferred Shares, issuable in series;
- an unlimited number of Class A Shares; and
- an unlimited number of Class B Shares (multiple voting) (Class B Shares).

As at 1 December 2025, the issued and outstanding share capital of the Company was 193,039,648 Class A Shares and 24,122,758 Class B Shares. There are no First Preferred Shares or Second Preferred Shares in issue.

Class A Shares and Class B Shares: Voting Rights

The holders of Class A Shares are entitled to one vote per share and the holders of Class B Shares are entitled to ten votes per share. As at 1 December 2025, 44.45 per cent. and 55.55 per cent. of the aggregate voting rights were attached to the outstanding Class A Shares and Class B Shares, respectively.

Subdivision or Consolidation

The Class A Shares or Class B Shares may not be subdivided or consolidated unless simultaneously the Class B Shares and the Class A Shares, as the case may be, are subdivided or consolidated in the same manner and in such an event, the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions then attaching to the Class A Shares and Class B Shares shall also attach to the Class A Shares and Class B Shares as subdivided or consolidated.

Rights upon Liquidation

Upon liquidation or dissolution of the Company or any other distribution of its assets among its shareholders for the purposes of winding up its affairs, all the assets of the Company available for payment or distribution to the holders of Class A Shares and holders of Class B Shares will be paid or distributed equally, share for share.

Conversion Rights of Class A Shares in Specific Circumstances

If a takeover bid or exchange bid or an issuer bid, other than an exempt bid, for the Class B Shares is made to the holders of Class B Shares without being made simultaneously and on the same terms and conditions to the holders of Class A Shares, each Class A Share shall become convertible into one Class B Share, from the date the offer is made, at the holder's option, in order to entitle the holder to accept the offer. However, this right of conversion shall be deemed not to come into effect if the offer is not completed by its offeror or if the offer is rejected by one or several of the senior executives and full-time employees of the Group and any corporate entity under their control, who are, as a group, owners, directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, of more than 50 per cent. of the outstanding Class B Shares. The articles of the Company contain a complete description of the types of bids giving rise to the rights of conversion, provide certain procedures to be followed to perform the conversion and stipulate that upon such a bid, the Company or the transfer agent will communicate in writing to the holders of Class A Shares full details as to the bid and the manner of exercising the right of conversion.

Conversion of Class B Shares

Each Class B Share may, from time to time, at the holder's option, be converted into one Class A Share.

Issue of Class B Shares

The articles of the Company provide for pre-emptive rights in favour of holders of Class B Shares. Therefore, the Company may not issue Class A Shares or securities convertible into Class A Shares without offering, in the manner determined by the Board of Directors of the Company, to each holder of Class B Shares, pro rata to the number of Class B Shares it holds, the right to subscribe concurrently with the issue of Class A Shares or of securities convertible into Class A Shares, as the case may be, an aggregate number of Class B Shares or securities convertible into Class B Shares, as the case may be, sufficient to fully maintain its proportion of voting rights associated with the Class B Shares. The consideration to be paid for the issuance of each Class B Share or security convertible into Class B Shares, as the case may be, shall be equal to the issue price of each Class A Share or security convertible into Class A Shares then issued.

The pre-emptive rights do not apply in the case of the issuance of Class A Shares or securities convertible into Class A Shares:

- (a) in payment of stock dividends;
- (b) pursuant to the stock option plans or share purchase plans of the Company;
- (c) further to the conversion of Class B Shares into Class A Shares pursuant to the articles of the Company; or
- (d) further to the exercise of the conversion, exchange or acquisition rights attached to securities convertible into Class A Shares.

Any holder of Class B Shares may assign its pre-emptive rights to other holders of Class B Shares.

Dividends

The Class A Shares and Class B Shares participate equally, share for share, in any dividend which may be declared, paid or set aside for payment thereon. On July 30, 2024, the Board of Directors approved a dividend program under which the Company has paid, and intends to continue to pay, a quarterly cash dividend to holders of its Class A Shares and Class B Shares. Future dividends and the amounts will be at the discretion of the Board of Directors after taking into account the Company's free cash flow, earnings, financial position, market conditions and other factors the Board of Directors deems relevant, and will be communicated on a quarterly basis.

Amendments

The rights, privileges, conditions and restrictions attaching to the Class A Shares or Class B Shares may respectively be amended if the amendment is authorised by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of holders of Class A Shares and Class B Shares duly convened for that purpose. However, if the holders of Class A Shares as a class or the holders of Class B Shares as a class were to be affected in a manner different from that of the other classes of shares, such amendment shall, in addition, have to be authorised by at least two thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of holders of shares of the class of shares so affected in a different manner.

Rank

Except as otherwise stated herein, each Class A Share and each Class B Share carry the same rights, rank equally in all respects and are to be treated by the Company as if they constituted shares of a single class.

First Preferred Shares

The First Preferred Shares may be issued from time to time in one or more series and the Board of Directors of the Company has the right to determine, by resolution, the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to each series. The First Preferred Shares of each series rank equal to the First Preferred Shares of all other series and rank prior to the Second Preferred Shares, the Class A Shares and Class B Shares with respect to payment of dividends and repayment of capital. The holders of First Preferred Shares are entitled to receive notice of and attend any shareholders' meetings and are entitled to one vote per share. As at 1 December 2025, there were no First Preferred Shares outstanding.

Second Preferred Shares

The Second Preferred Shares may be issued from time to time in one or more series and the Board of Directors of the Company has the right to determine, by resolution, the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to each series. The Second Preferred Shares of each series rank equal to the Second Preferred Shares of all other series and rank after the First Preferred Shares, but prior to the Class A Shares and Class B Shares with respect to payment of dividends and repayment of capital. The Second Preferred Shares are non-voting. As at 1 December 2025, there were no Second Preferred Shares outstanding.

Share Capital – Record Date

The Board of Directors of the Company may set a future date not more than 60 clear days before the date of any shareholder meeting of the Company, or the date set for payment of a dividend or granting of rights as being the record date for determining which shareholders are entitled to receive notice of the holding or adjournment of such shareholder meetings, receive payment of such dividends or be attributed such rights so that only the shareholders registered upon close of business on the date set shall be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at such meetings, receive payment of such dividends or be attributed such rights, as the case may be, and this notwithstanding any share transfer in the records of the Company after the said record date.

Shareholder Meetings

The annual shareholder meeting of the Company will be held at the place, date, and time determined by the Board of the Directors of the Company.

The Board of Directors of the Company may decide that any annual shareholder meeting of the Company be held, in whole or in part, in person or any other manner in accordance with the provisions of the applicable laws, by any equipment or means enabling all participants to communicate directly with one another during the meeting, including by telephone, electronic or other communication method, such as teleconference, videoconference, computer connection or webcast.

In addition to the provisions of the applicable laws governing the calling of special general meetings, special general shareholder meetings may be called at any time by order of the Executive Chair of the Board of the Directors, the Founder of CGI and Co-Chair of the Board of Directors, or the President and Chief Executive Officer or, in their absence, by order of any member of the Company's executive committee.

Special general shareholder meetings will be held at the place, date, time determined by the Board of Directors of the Company, or at any other place where all of the shareholders of the Company entitled to vote at such meetings are present or represented by proxy, or at any other place approved in writing by all shareholders of the Company.

Notice of Meeting

A notice stating the place, date, time, and purpose of any shareholder meeting must be given to all shareholders entitled to receive such notice, or sent to them by mail in a stamped envelope; such notice must be sent to their last known address no less than 21 days but not more than 50 days before the date of the meeting.

If a share is jointly held, a notice of meeting will be sent to the person whose name appears first in the register as being one of the holders of record, and any notice thus given will be valid for all joint holders.

Any irregularity in the notice of meeting or in the manner in which it was given, including the accidental omission to send a notice of meeting to a shareholder, or where the shareholder fails to receive such notice, will not invalidate any resolution passed nor any action or measure taken at such meeting.

Quorum, Vote and Adjournments

Two persons present in person or by proxy representing 35 per cent. of the outstanding shares in the share capital of the Company entitled to vote at the meeting will constitute the quorum needed to conduct business at any shareholder meeting. A person participating in a meeting by telephone, electronic or other communication method, such as teleconference, videoconference, computer connection, webcast or other similar means, offered by the Company, is deemed to be present at the meeting for all purposes.

Subject to the relevant provisions of the applicable laws, the articles of constitution or any other by-law of the Company, all matters submitted to the shareholder meeting will be decided by a majority vote and constitute measures taken by all shareholders.

If a quorum is not met, the shareholders who are present and entitled to be counted for the purposes of determining the quorum will have the power to adjourn any shareholder meeting to any other time or place, without further notice other than in a statement made at the meeting, until such time as a quorum is present. Any business that may have been conducted at a meeting prior to its adjournment may be conducted upon resumption of the meeting, provided the quorum is met.

Right to Vote and Proxy

Votes may be cast either in person or by proxy. At any shareholder meeting, each shareholder present and entitled to vote at that meeting may cast one vote if the vote is taken by a show of hands; and if an election by ballot, each shareholder entitled to vote therein who is present or represented by proxy (regardless of the communication method used, whether by telephone, electronically or other similar means, offered by the Company), may cast one vote per Class A Share and ten votes per Class B Share that carries a right to vote at such meeting and is registered in his name in the Company's records at the time of the meeting or, if determined, on the record date, unless another distribution of votes is provided for in the Company's articles. Prior to or immediately after the result of a vote by show of hands is declared, any shareholder or proxyholder may demand a ballot vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, when an annual shareholder meeting is not held in person, the vote is taken by ballot (through any communication method offered by the Company) unless otherwise decided by the Chair of the meeting.

For any share that is jointly held, the vote cast by the holder who votes either in person or by proxy whose name appears first in the Company's records will be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.

IMPORTANT NOTE

The Company is not providing any tax, legal or financial advice, nor is the Company making any recommendations regarding whether you decide to participate in the Share Purchase Plan. You should consult with your personal tax, legal and financial advisors regarding whether to participate in the Share Purchase Plan before taking any action related to the Share Purchase Plan. Further, depending on where the Class A Shares are listed, the country of your residence or the country in which your broker resides, you may be subject to insider trading restrictions or market abuse laws that may affect your ability to accept, acquire, sell or otherwise dispose of the Class A Shares, rights to the Class A Shares, or rights linked to the value of Class A Shares during such times as you are considered to have “insider information” regarding the Company as defined by the laws or regulations of your country. Local insider trading laws and regulations may also prohibit the cancellation or amendment of orders you place before you possessed insider information. Furthermore, you could be prohibited from (i) disclosing information to any third party (other than on a “need to know” basis) and (ii) “tipping” third parties or causing them otherwise to buy or sell securities. Third parties may include fellow employees. Any restrictions under these laws or regulations are separate from and in addition to any restrictions that may be imposed under any applicable Company insider trading policy. Please note that it is your personal responsibility to comply with any applicable requirements or restrictions, and you should consult with your personal legal advisor to determine your personal obligations and duties.
